AIR

"DOES MOTHER WANT ME?"

The little fellow has blown with all his strength, and falling downy tufts still clinging to the strands of hair. According to the oracle of childhood, mother does not want him. But mother would tell a different story. She has noticed the weakness of the lungs, and if she saw him now, flushed with his unusual exertion and struggling to stifle the cough, which followed it, she'd feel how much she wanted him, and wanted those "weak" lungs made strong, that she might not lose him.

For "weak" lungs, obstinate cough, hemoptorrhage, weakness and emaciation.

There is no medicine so healing and so strengthening as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is especially valuable for children, building up weak bodies with sound, healthy flesh. It is entirely free from alcohol and narcotic.

"Winter before this, my dearest boy (who is now nearly five years old) had a terrible cough, he had it the whole winter and of course," writes J. M. Harr, Esq., of Cameron, Brecken Co., Ga. "Physicians said him no good and nothing my wife and I could do but to let him go. After your 'Discovery' had cured my cough so quickly, when everything else failed, I wrote him to bring him back from the country, she having carried him there and of the change would do him good. We were living in Savannah, Ga., at the time. She brought him back and after a few days your great 'Golden Medical Discovery' for children he was fully recovered."

are necessary if we would possess that unseen wealth of spiritual things which enable us to do our best in the world. And I do not believe that you will find the best possible something on the subject of the human system, nor could I wish a great longing, yes, the passion for righteousness, fill you. It is in this life which has the abiding joy and gladness and glory in it, but it has too, the element of self-sacrifice and the element of a true heroism, the abiding willingness to give all and to concentrate one's perfect self to the service of the higher life. It is not a mere great delight in all that is beautiful, exalting and noble. I want you to have all the graces of life and its refinements, but more than all that I want you to possess in your heart of hearts not only the desire to do what is right and true, but a great determination to realize in yourselves this higher life.

A Second Possession.

And another possession which these like you ought to possess is moral earnestness. Perhaps it is not right to say that certain difficulties or great moral questions are the business of the theologians. They are the business of all men and women, of all ages and of all conditions. Moral earnestness is not only of clear value to us, but it is a certain serious attitude of life and truth and opportunity. We turn back to Puritan England and find those men who founded the universities on this side of the Atlantic. They had the heart of a martyr. They were men of the world. There were men of substance, men who thought they were in question of government and of morals.

ANOTHER WORD ON SOCIALISM.

THE Gazette reproduces in another column an editorial from the Rocky Mountain News discussing in a candid way the attempt which is being made to convert members of labor unions to the tenets of the Socialist party.

Though somewhat long the article will well repay perusal because of the arguments advanced and for the reason that they come from a newspaper which has always shown itself to be an ardent friend of organized labor.

The view taken by the News corresponds with that expressed in the Gazette a few days since, that it is unwise for a labor organization to bind itself to the tenets of any political party and especially the Socialist organization.

It must be clear to those labor leaders who have given the matter deep thought, that the most valuable aid that they can have will come through one or the other, or both, of the great political organizations now in existence. To announce these two parties in an effort to make them absolutely indifferent to the demands made upon them by men who have no part nor lot in helping to bring about success. The natural course of reasoning would be: "If labor becomes Socialist it needs no help from us." Thus labor deprives itself of the most valuable instrument it has for achieving its ends.

It is likewise to bind the members of a labor organization to the tenets of one political party deprives its members of that liberty of thought and action which ought to be regarded as a sacred and inalienable right.

Moreover, the Socialist propaganda, while it may sound well as an abstract theory is so far from the day and generation is concerned wholly impractical and impossible. Until men and women are freed and constituted upon an entirely different plane from that which they now occupy, the propaganda will fall of its own weight, because the vast majority of the people of the land will refuse to sanction and endorse it.

THE DECLINE IN STOCKS.

THE decline which has taken place in the last two or three months in railroad and industrial securities has been stupendous. It represents many millions in valuation. It could scarcely have been worse if all the evils predicted of Bryanism had come to pass.

Strange as it may seem, some of these declines have taken place in railroad stocks that are generally considered safe. Take for example, New York Central, now $126 against $188 in January; Pennsylvania, $128 against $170 last year; St. Paul, $164, holding about $200 a few months ago.

These declines have taken place without any especial interruption to the business of the country and are not due to any notable decrease in prosperity. They seem to have been due to a fear of over-capitalization on the one hand and a constricted market on the other. Speculators had become worked with securities, expecting the market to continue to rise indefinitely. When it turned the other way they helped it by throwing the stock on the market. Everybody was a seller and nobody wanted to buy, and the inevitable result was lower prices. If these declines had occurred under a Democratic administration, there would undoubtedly have been a wall over the length and breadth of the country, and it would all have been laid at the door of the party.

A NOVEL SORT OF PRIZE.

HERE are clues vines and flowers and trees and one thing and another, but there is only one college in the country so far as known, that has a trophy in the form of a class "bun".

At the University of New York, the other day, a unique feature was the presentation of this "bun". It is a mouldy piece of pastry prepared 20 years ago by the class of '88 and kept since then on satin cushions in a handsome silver casket. The seniors of '86 awarded it by election to the class below them that had earned most popularity. Since then it has been held by the classes of '87, '88, '89, '90, '91, '92, '93, '94, '95, '96, '97, '98, '99, '00, '01, '02, '03, '04, '05, '06, '07, '08, '09, '10, '11, '12, '13, '14, '15, '16, '17,
